Case 1:05-cv-00108-KAJ Document 119-5 Kurt Van Scoy 1 that. That was all his dealings. He did what he had to Q. But there was no one senior to you at the store 1 2 do. All we did is just hung around until he's ready to 2 in New Haven, Connecticut; is that correct? go or ready to go to the hotel. 3 3 MS. MORGAN: Objection. 4 Q. Were you aware of any other stores that were not 4 A. There was quite a few people actually just kind 5 part of the chain of stores of Van Scoy Diamond Mine 5 of, you know, bounced around, if they were assistant operated by your father, operating under the name of 6 manager or manager. I mean, you know, I did my thing and 6 7 Van Scoy Diamond Mine? I was family -- you know, a family member of the 7 A. All I know is the stores that my father visited. 8 business. If there was other people there, if they were 9 I mean, that's -- I went with him. If he had to go to 9 classified as higher than me... You know, I think as a New England, you know, Rhode Island, Connecticut, 10 family member, I think you have a little more say than wherever he had to go, one of us had to go travel with my 11 11 certainly with a manager. 12 father. 12 Q. Did your father ever complain to you that another 13 Q. But the answer is that you were not aware of any store was using the Van Scoy Diamond Mine without his 13 14 other one? 14 permission? 15 MS. MORGAN: Objection. 15 A. Not to my knowledge. 16 A. All -- no. 16 Q. When you worked in the Wilkes-Barre store, did 17 I actually don't understand the question 17 everyone there know that the mark was a registered 18 really. 18 trademark and service mark? 19 Q. Were you aware of any other Van -- of any other 19 A. Again, like I stated before, I wasn't -- or, 20 jewelry store operating under the name Van Scoy Diamon@0 anyone -- I'm not anybody else. I'm speaking for myself. 21 Mine which was not part of your father's licensing 21 I was not aware of any, certainly, mark or trademark or 22 operation? 22 anything of that sort until actually November 18th of 23 MS. MORGAN: Objection. 23 2004. That's the first time I have heard of anything 24 What time frame are we talking about? 24 about any kind of a mark. And I stated that before.

Page 13 1 Q. You were at the deposition of Marie Kornish a few 2 days ago; is that correct?

A. That is correct.

Q. And did you hear her testify about everyone

5 knowing about the mark?

A. That's her testimony. I'm not Marie.

Q. You disagree with her then?

MS. MORGAN: Objection. This is outside the scope of this. Let's move on with this, Michael. BY MR. PETOCK:

Q. When did your father -- first of all, did your father give any permission -- strike that.

Did your father or his company, Van Scoy Diamond Mine, Inc., give any permission to your corporation, Van Scoy Diamond Mine of Delaware, to us the mark Van Scoy Diamond Mine?

A. If you're stating if my father gave me the name, yes, he gave me the name physically. Yes, he did.

Q. What do you mean physically he gave you the name?

20 A. Gave me the sign that was in the store, Van Scoy

21 Diamond Mine. He gave me that sign and put it in. He 22 was there for my grand opening and did advertising for 23 me, for my grand opening of Van Scoy Diamond Mine.

Q. And you think that was permission also for the

- MR. PETOCK: We're talking about in the 1 2 1980's.
- 3 A. I don't know.

10

- 4 Q. You don't know if you knew?
- 5 A. I don't know if I knew.
- 6 Q. Did you think that someone could open a 7
 - Van Scoy Diamond Mine store in the 1980's without
- 8 permission from your father? 9

MS. MORGAN: Objection.

- A. Like I said, I was 18 years old. And really on
- 11 that side of it, that's my father's dealings. I'm not my 12
- father. And what his dealings did with that, I don't 13 know.
- 13 14 Q. But you were managing the New Haven store at that 14 15 time; is that correct? 15
- 16 A. It was his store, my father's store. And I'm his 17 son. And he sent me up there to work at the store.
- 18 Q. Well, you were a manager of it?
- A. I was manager, garbage changer, bench man, 19
- 20 salesman, you know. And I said -- you basically did a
- 21 little bit of everything. I had to run to the other
- 22 store sometimes to fill in for people at the other
- 23 stores. It was a family business. I'm a family member.
 - I had to do what I had to do.

Was there anything in writing? 3 I want to show you what's been previously marked as A. My father rarely did anything in writing with 4 Plaintiff's Exhibit 6 in your previous deposition. anybody. It was more of a handshake, because that's the 5 A. Yes. honest gentleman that he is. And that's the way I was 6 Q. Can you tell me what that is? 7 brought up, being fair and honest. 7 A. That is a letter that my father sent to me in his 8 There was no documents or anything, no. I'm 8 own handwriting from the Wilkes-Barre -- Van Scoy Diamond his son. He said, "I'm proud of you. Good luck to you. 9 Mine on Mundy Street in Wilkes-Barre. That was in 1997. 10 You can do it. And I love you." That's his exact words 10 And on the second page -- excuse me -- is an 11 Q. So your answer is no, there is nothing in 11 ad that my father actually wrote -- or, should I say --12 writing? 12 scratch that. He faxed this -- no. He wrote -- this is 13 A. No, there's nothing in writing. No. 13 a faxed copy, and that he mailed this to me. 14 Q. And when was this permission given? 14 This one, on the bottom, it says Mundy 15 A. This was in October actually when he gave me the 15 Street store. Obviously -- you basically just change the sign. And --16 ads around. Which the plaintiff is aware that he used to 17 Q. October of what year? 17 make his ads. And just at the ends, he would add in the 18 A. Of 1994. Excuse me. 18 different addresses for the different stores. Q. Okay. And where did he give you this permission 19 And the same thing on page 3. It's a at? Where was he physically when he said that? 20 20 handwritten ad that my dad did. And this was actually 21 A. Actually the Mundy Street store. We've talked 21 for the Vestal store. But, again, it's -- as plaintiff about it in his office a few times. I told him what I 22 is aware as well, that our dad actually changed the planned on doing. We actually planned a strategy, if you23 names. He just changed the address of the ads and will, to how we're going to get the tan safe out. And he 24 basically used the wording. Page 15 Page 17 took me over to the warehouse, physically helped me carry 1 Q. And what's the significance of this ad, if any? the sign into the back of the U-Haul truck and gave me 2 A. It's an ad that you put on the radio. It's very 3 the showcase. And then we took it on down to the store. significant. My father was very, very good at doing 3 And then we actually came back up and moved 4 advertising. And certainly if you at any time tried to the tan safe, him and I. Physically him and I moved that 5 come up with something a little different or a little tan safe from the Wilkes-Barre store. Your -- the 6 creative -- he was very creative. 7 plaintiff was sitting there, was witness to see that, 7 Q. Do you consider this part of the permission actually moving the safe, my father and I, and taking it 8 given? 9 down to the Delaware store. 9 A. Absolutely. 10 Q. Was there -- were there any acts of your father 10 Q. You already testified this was 1997, correct? which you consider to be part of the permission other 11 A. It's right on the top there, yes. The seal and than what you've just testified to? 12 12 the post office. 13 A. No. Selling at the store and doing ads for me, 13 Q. In fact, it was, I guess, 18 September 1997? 14 visiting the store. No, that would be it. A. That's what it says, yes. That would be correct. 14 Q. What kind of ads did he do for you? 15 15 MR. PETOCK: Okay. Wayne, why don't you A. Radio spots. 16 leave the room for a few minutes? And we'll come get 16 17 Q. And when was this? 17 you. 18 THE WITNESS: I believe this is for 18 (Whereupon, Wayne Van Scoy left the attorneys only, if I'm not mistaken, because we had --19 19 proceedings.) 20 Charlie had -- we had some --20 21 MS. MORGAN: Yeah. I think if you're going 21 REDACTED 22 to get into that, we need to introduce the protective 22 23 order. 23 24 24
